34th Annual John Dickinson Invitational
March 25th, 26th and 27th, 2011

Please join us for the annual John Dickinson Invitational Diving Competition on March 25th, 26th and 27th, 2011. This prestigious competition is being held at the Etobicoke Olympium in Toronto, Ontario. The JD competition, as it is fondly referred to, is celebrating its 34th year. This meet has always been recognized as an extremely well-run event and has attracted divers from across Canada, the United States as well as internationally.

The John Dickinson Invitational is hosted by the Etobicoke Diving Club (EDC). The EDC was founded in 1955 by the internationally renowned diving coach, John Dickinson. Although John Dickinson passed away in 2009, we are honoured to commemorate John Dickinson, through the Competition which bears his name.

EDC has produced divers who have won championships both provincially and nationally in both Senior and Age Group categories. EDC divers and coaches have represented Canada all over the world, including but not limited to; World, Pan Am, Commonwealth, and Olympic Games competitions.

An important part of hosting a competition is the provision of hospitality services for coaches, officials and volunteers throughout the competition. Our hospitality is something that the EDC takes great pride in and is consistently recognized for. I'm confident that with the assistance of our many parent volunteers along with our diving club members, our hospitality will be top-notch over the course of the competition.

The JD competition is sure to yield some top-level diving balanced with sportsmanship and fun. Our hospitality is something that the EDC takes great pride in and has been consistently recognized for. Divers and their coaches can look forward to a wonderful competitive experience in Toronto.

Mark your calendars for March as the EDC welcomes you to Toronto. We hope you enjoy your time with us and we look forward to some exciting diving moments throughout the competition.

Isabel Warren Award
Presented Annually at the John Dickinson Meet
Etobicoke Diving Club

Isabel Warren was a vibrant, talented, cherished friend and diver from the Etobicoke Diving Club whose life tragically ended in an accident at school in the late spring of 2009. Her Etobicoke 'diving family' remember her as a genuine, warm, outgoing, bubbly, enthusiastic teen who was devoted to her teammates, coaches and the Club. Isabel was a young woman who provided boundless encouragement to her peers with words, her brilliant personality and spirited behavior. Isabel was an athlete who exemplified fair play, courtesy, striving spirit, and grace, which are the characteristics associated with exceptional sportsmanship. It is for these reasons that the Etobicoke Diving Club has chosen to honor Isabel's memory by recognizing a diver at our John Dickinson meet who has followed in Isabel's footsteps by demonstrating outstanding sportsmanship.

Each Club who enters a diver or divers in the John Dickinson meet can nominate one diver from their Club to receive this award. Clubs are asked to provide no more than one page of information outlining the rationale for their choice of sportsman, submitting it to EDC prior to the start of the J.D. meet. A small committee from EDC will review the selections and announce the recipient, awarding the prize before the end of the meet.

It remains our hope that this award will inspire divers to approach the sport of diving with the qualities and characteristics that defined Isabel Warren – a much loved member of the Canadian diving community.
